

Schoolboys Shake Garden with Yells as Records Fall

P. S. 10 Captures Point
Trophy by Comfort-

CORCORAN SETS
HIGH JUMP MARK

Exciting Finishes the Rule in
P. S. A. L. Elementary
Games.

Six thousand schoolboys cheered themselves hoarse while the athletes of Public School 10, of Manhattan, romped off with the point trophy in the twelfth annual renewal of the indoor track and field championships for elementary schools at Madison Square Garden yesterday afternoon.

The lads from St. Nicholas av. piled up 38 points, while Public School 27, also of this borough, was second, with 20 points. In fact, the Manhattan boys had more or less of a field day, for 62, from the lower East Side, was third, with 14 points; 184, with 13 points, came next, and 43 followed along with 10 points. The first Brooklyn school to show in the point total was 43, which won 9 points.

Records fell in the afternoon of sport, and every new standard was hailed with a storm of applause. G. Corcoran, of Public School 184, Manhattan, smashed the record in the running high jump, clearing the bar at 5 feet 3 1/2 inches. The former record was 5 feet 2 1/2 inches, made on December 11, 1909, by Homer Baker, the well-known middle distance runner of the New York A. C.

Jack Johnson, of Public School 10, Manhattan, established a new record in the high jump for 100-pound lads. His actual jump was 5 feet 3 1/2 inch, while the former standard was 4 feet 11 inches. The relay team of Public School 27, Manhattan, wiped the old mark of the books of the 100-pound class by covering the quarter mile in 6:55.5. The old record was 6:55.1-5. The records in the 60-yard dash and the 100-yard dash were tied.

The opening of the games was most impressive. The contestants, 2,000 in number, the greatest number of competitors ever entered in these games, headed by the brass band of Public School 21, under the direction of A. J. Pugliese, marched around the arena. The boys halted in front of the reviewing stand, in which General George W. Winant, president of the Public Schools Athletic League, Dr. C. Ward Crampin, Gustavus T. Kirby, former president of the Amateur Athletic Union, and other men prominent in the educational and athletic world were gathered.

The boys pledged allegiance to the flag. The band then played "The Star-Spangled Banner," and when the strains had died away the boys broke ranks and the riotous cheers of the enthusiastic rosters, and the games were on.

General Winant, under whose wise, energetic leadership the league has prospered, started the first heat of the 60-yard dash for 85-pound boys, the first event of the afternoon. Hal Schmidt, from Public School 27, of The Bronx, broke the worst of the finishing stand. That he failed to place in the final heat detracted not a jot from the pleasure of his day. It is not every boy who can start the day with victory when the chief event of the Public Schools Athletic League starts the race.

It was regretted that General Leonard Wood could not attend the games. Urgent official business required his attention in Washington. He was represented by Colonel Mallory and his staff.

The meet was perhaps the most successful ever held. The fields were large, the athletes well trained in most cases and the finances of the kind that had the crowd standing on the chairs.

In fact, the boys in the seats needed little cheering. They came prepared to yell, and made the most of every opportunity. And the cheering, he said, varied from the well-organized and spontaneous, that was more striking.

The relay races, which always make a hit with the crowd, were especially interesting. Numerous heats were necessary because of the unusual number of entries. In many of the younger classes, the boys of Public School 27, who had the most of the crowd standing on the chairs, were in the final heat, and the boys of Public School 27, who had the most of the crowd standing on the chairs, were in the final heat.

Max Wilcox, of P. S. 148, Brooklyn, set the record in the seventy yard dash in the 115-pound class, when he ran the course in 8 1/2 seconds, only a split second away from the record. The time, 41 1/2 seconds, was a second behind the record.

Maxwell Praises Boy Athletes

Dr. William H. Maxwell, City Superintendent of Schools, was among the prominent persons at the track and field championships of the elementary schools at Madison Square Garden yesterday afternoon. He was greatly pleased with the work of the boys and congratulated the Public Schools Athletic League on the efficient way in which the games were conducted.

"I have attended every meet of the Public Schools Athletic League held in Madison Square Garden since the league was established," he said. "I am proud and grateful after what I see to-day that I was privileged to assist in the organization of this league. Comparing the first meet with that held to-day, I find that our boys have improved in physique, in courage, in running, jumping and in putting the weight and in all the other athletic exercises. It cultivates not only physical power but the great moral qualities of courage, perseverance, purity and grit. The great good of the Public Schools Athletic League is that it induces all of our boys to cultivate the physical and moral qualities and not a few who are athletically inclined. The work should be commended by every one."

ROWLAND ON THE JOB

New Manager of White Sox

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Clarence Rowland to-day completed his first official act as manager of the Chicago American League club by signing Al Brown, third baseman of the Davenport, Iowa, club in the Three I League.

CALLS FOOTBALL THE WORST ABUSE

President of Union College Says
Students Are Exploited
in Arena.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Football at the great American universities is the "worst abuse of the modern college system," Dr. Charles Alexander Richmond, president of Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., asserted in an address at the annual dinner of the college alumni from the Middle West here last night.

"The football situation in most colleges is disgraceful," Dr. Richmond said. "Fathers and mothers allow their sons to be exploited in the arena for profit like circus performers or vaudeville actors. Academies are scraped for athletic material and inducements of all kinds are offered for promising athletes."

"The men that go into football are driven and coached under the professional system until they have no time for study. They have no time for anything but athletics."

Colonel Ruppert and Ban

Both Parties Going to Chicago
Soon and May Resume
Dickering There.

French Lick, Ind., Dec. 19.—Negotiations here between Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Captain T. L. Huston for the sale of the New York American League club were broken off to-night without an agreement, but probably will be taken up in Chicago next week.

According to announcement, Colonel Ruppert fixed $420,000 as the highest price he would pay for the club, and that only after the services of a certain manager, whose name was withheld, had been obtained for the team. Johnson said to-night that he had said to Ruppert that he would not meet the price offered by Colonel Ruppert, but he could not guarantee that the manager would be obtained.

The schedule committee completed the playing arrangements for 1915 to-day, but said that they would not be made public until a meeting to be held in New York in February.

Johnson departed to-night for Chicago to make the trip to New York. He is expected to return to New York on Monday. While none of the principals said anything about continuing the negotiations for the sale of the New York Americans in Chicago, the fact that Colonel Ruppert and Captain Huston expected to go there Monday was taken to mean that the deal had not been definitely declared off.

No reason why Colonel Ruppert should limit his price to $420,000, when earlier in the week he had said that he would pay as high as $450,000 for the club, could be learned. Johnson said that the players demanded by Ruppert could possibly be signed, but he was not sure about the manager.

Baseball men here laughed at the story that Joe Kelly, former Baltimore star and leader last year of the Toronto team, would be manager of the New York Americans next year.

Chicago Declines Game Too Many Hard Contests to Meet Dartmouth.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Michigan or Illinois may fill the dates on the Dartmouth football schedule definitely declined to-day by the board of athletic control of the University of Chicago.

Immediately upon being notified that the Maroon card already contained too many hard games to allow of one with the Green to be added, Walter A. McCormack, representing the alumni of Dartmouth, wired Phil Bartlme, Michigan athletic director, at Ann Arbor, and George Huff, in charge at Urbana, inviting them to meet the Dartmouth eleven in 1915 and 1916.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 19.—Phil Bartlme, director of University of Michigan athletics, at noon to-day said he had not received the telegram from Walter A. McCormack with reference to a football game in 1915 or 1916 between Michigan and Dartmouth.

Mr. Bartlme said there are still two vacant dates on Michigan's 1915 schedule, but he did not care to discuss the probability of a game with Dartmouth until definite negotiations are under way.

Walter Johnson Hops Back to Fold of Organized Baseball

Signs with Old Team for Three Years After Talk with Griffith and Lawyers.

Killifer by the same tactics. Only last week Fred Clark, of the Pittsburgh Nationals, went down to see Lee Magee, who has been made manager of the Brooklyn Federals, and tried to get him to come back into the fold.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago Federal League club, to-day to-night that he would take every legal step possible to enforce Johnson's contract with the Federals.

"I have had no opportunity as yet to consult counsel," said Weeghman. "I will say, however, that we will go the limit to prevent Johnson breaking his contract with us. I cannot believe it possible that he has signed another contract. The information astounded me."

After weeks of angling by both sides in the baseball war, Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals, succeeded on December 3 in cornering Walter Johnson at his home in Coffeyville, Kan., and induced him to sign a two-year contract with the Chicago Federal League team.

Johnson's successful raid by the Federals, Johnson had declared that he was willing to give Washington first and last chance to bid for his services, but that his ultimate decision would be governed wholly by the amount of money offered. Johnson is generally conceded to be the fastest pitcher in the game to-day, and the fastest that the game has ever known. Last season he racked third among the pitchers of the American League, with a mark of 1.71 earned runs by opponents per game.

Although his work showed a little fling off from the preceding season, he illustrated his usefulness by working in more games than any pitcher in the organization. He was called to the mound in no less than fifty-one contests, and pitched 371 2/3 innings. His best year was 1913, when he led the league and allowed 1.09 earned runs per game.

ARMY FIVE TOYS WITH GEORGETOWN

Southerners Unable to Cope Field Goal—MacTaggart Star of Game.

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 19.—The Army smothered Georgetown here this afternoon on the basketball court by a score of 20 to 3. The game was rough and exciting throughout the first half, but during the last period the superior physical condition of the Army lads made the visitors look weak.

Georgetown was unable to cage a single field goal, and its trio of points were all scored from the foul line. MacTaggart's spectacular shooting from scrimmage was the feature of the Army's play. Torney, of Georgetown, and Boye, of the Army, both heavy and aggressive players, starred in passing and floor work.

Griffith Has a Change of Heart

Circumstances alter cases, but in no profession as much as baseball. Clark Griffith, manager of the Senators, came to New York recently for the meeting of the National League.

Walter Johnson had just jumped to the Federals, but actually putting his name to it. At first he professed to believe that the great bait had only agreed to sign with the Federals but actually putting his name to paper, later he was compelled to shift ground, and admitted that the star had changed his mind, but he maintained stoutly that he did not want his back.

"Of course, he used to be a drawing card," said Griffith, "but you have no idea how much the 'fans' have turned against him since he jumped to the outlaws. Why, if we could get him back right now he wouldn't draw three persons into our park."

Seemingly Griffith is anxious to get the patronage of these three people, since he journeyed all the way to Kansas City to convince Johnson that he was still bound to the Washington club.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"I don't believe it," asserted President James A. Gilmore of the Federal League, when told that Johnson had signed a contract to play three years with the Washington American League club.

"Johnson signed a contract a couple of weeks ago to play two years with the Chicago Federal League club and accepted $5,000 advance money," declared Mr. Gilmore. "The advance money was to be applied on the salary of both years. I believe Johnson is too honorable a man to repudiate the contract that he made with us."

"His alleged statement that he is convinced the option in his last year's contract is binding may be true, but we are convinced that the option is not binding. We are certain on this point."

"It looks to me that an effort has been made to work on Johnson's feelings and to discredit him. By flattery and money, organized ball has tempted him. They probably brought in a lawyer or two to argue with him that he was wrong when he signed with us and that the courts never would permit him to play with the Federals. "WET GROUNDS" MEAN NAUGHT IN WINTER LEAGUE

Double-Header Played on Fifth Avenue Field in Spite of Rain.

TWELFTH REGIMENT AND CALUMET WIN

University and Union, Last Year's Leaders, Meet with a Big Surprise.

By HEYWOOD BROWN.

In the vocabulary of the Winter League there is no such phrase as "wet grounds." In spite of rain which was steady, persistent and at times as emphatic as George Stallings, a double-header was played on the league's grounds, at Fifth av., between 71st and 72d sts., yesterday. Fortunately, the stadium is open at one end, for if the stand had been a bowl it would have been filled with water.

It is one of the handiaps of a wet ball, Ashmore pitched the best game of the season in the opening contest. The twirler of the 12th Infantry officers' team, defeated University and Union, who were downed University by a score of 7 to 3, and Calumet won from Union, at 12 to 7. The mud was only a few inches deep while the first game was being played, but by the time Calumet and Union took the field it was spitting high. Washington and Benjamin, of the losing team, sought to increase their base running efficiency by fastening non-skid mesh over their rubber soled shoes, but did not profit greatly by their ingenious scheme.

In the second game W. A. Tilt, once a Calumet pitcher, worked as well for Calumet as he did for the 12th Infantry. Tilt lost control and what with bases on balls and hits Union put four men across the plate before the rally was checked.

Tilt has not had much practice with the underhand delivery prescribed by the rules of the Winter League, but he had lots of speed yesterday, and when he gains control the other members of the league will find Calumet a much harder proposition than it was last year.

Two double plays helped to quicken and enliven the second game. Coolidge made one unassisted, after catching a fly, and in the other the ball travelled from Washington to Hinkley, from Hinkley to Albert Tilt, who was in the line, but Albert Tilt led in the slugging, with five safe drives. Bigelow and B. B. Tilt each made four hits.
